

June 5, 1939.

Mr. Joseph Miles,
526 North 2nd St.,
Richmond, Va.

Dear Mr. Miles:

Your letter of May 29th just received. I was very glad to hear from you, as I had written you prior to our Spring Training trip and received no answer. I did not know what to think had become of you. We were hoping to stop through Richmond on our way back from training, and we received no reply we did not bother going any further.

I am writing to Richmond Park again today and asking can we have June 21st, we have decided to come home before the 30th, so we will not want to be there on that date.

We are scheduled with the Baltimore Elites June 19th, and I understand from them that game is going to be played in Richmond, we are back in Baltimore on the 20th, and then scheduled to begin a trip with the N. Y. Black Yankees through North Carolina and Virginia. My object in writing Richmond today is to see if we can get the Park for the 21st to play the Black Yankees on our way South, this means we would be in Richmond on Monday the 19th with the Baltimore Elites and Wednesday, the 21st with the N. Y. Black Yankees, do you think this would be too much baseball? I believe if we have a nice looking game Monday and fortunate enough to beat the Elites, we should draw very well two days later with another Team.

I believe the Elites have sent a Gentleman from Baltimore to Richmond to take care of Monday's game for them, in the meantime I will speak to them about you, as you are right there and could handle the games very easily. Please let me hear from you by return mail what you think of these games.

Yours very truly,

AM:CCJ